The 17th Annual Graduate Student Association Research Conference
California State University, Los Angeles

We are excited that you are attending Significations. The conference will be held on the 3rd floor of the University-Student Union at California State University, Los Angeles on Saturday, May 12, 2012, beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 5:00 p.m. Throughout the day, panels of graduate students will present their research.

We are pleased to announce our keynote speaker: Professor Rajagopalan Radhakrishnan, Chancellor's Professor of English and Comparative Literature at University of California, Irvine. Professor Radhakrishnan will present the keynote address midday.

Thanks to ASI, this year's registration fee is waived for CSULA students who register in advance. Those sponsorships are limited and are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Although attendance at the Panels and Keynote Address are free and open to the public, the registration fee includes the opening reception (including continental breakfast), lunch, a Significations conference folder, and a CD containing the conference proceedings. Space is limited for the Keynote Address; registered attendees, presenters, and moderators will be seated first.

All presenters and attendees are required to register before May 1, 2012.

The registration fee is $20.
